

Thursday 2nd April 2020

Think back to Mrs Williams' e-mail from Monday. Can you write a reply e-mail in your book to persuade Mrs Williams to visit Boston? Use the website

<https://www.visitbostonuk.com/attractions/>

to re-look at places to visit. You might talk about these in your e-mail when trying to persuade Mrs Williams to visit Boston. Remember to use key features to persuade. You can find these again below.

To: Year 3 pupils

Subject: Lincoln, the best city ever!

From: Mrs Williams

Send

Attach

Good morning Year 3,

Hope you are well and working hard at home.

This morning I want to tell you about the most amazing, beautiful and historical city in Lincolnshire. I'm sure you'll have guessed that I am referring to Lincoln. Have you ever been? Lincoln is one of the finest historic cities in Britain. It lies on the River Witham and is most famous for its magnificent and stunning Cathedral which is one of the largest in England. It's mighty and impressive Castle lies at the hilltop where you have picturesque views of the city. 99% of visitors to Lincoln claim it is the best place to visit and there is so much to do there. You can dine in many of the wonderful restaurants along the Bray ford, meet friends in the most exciting play place, and shop in town visiting lots of different stores or visit Woodside Wildlife Park and meet lots of unusual animals in their habitats. It really is the best place to visit for a day out, you won't be disappointed.

I hope I have persuaded you to visit Lincoln and I would like you to persuade me to visit your hometown Boston.

I look forward to hearing all about Boston.

Kind regards, Mrs Williams

Persuasive Language:

- Rule of 3: repeat something three times to make the reader pay attention- It's an exciting, thrilling and wonderful place to visit!
- Emotive language: powerful words that stir emotion in the reader- amazing, beautiful, popular etc...
- Rhetorical questions: questions that do not need an answer but make the reader think. Have you ever visited...?
- Statistics: providing evidence to prove to the reader that what you are saying is true! 99% of visitors agree that...
- Personal pronouns: using 'you' and 'we' to get the reader involved.
- Imagery: creating a picture in the reader's head.

