Today you can continue to write your non-chronological report on James Lind. Perhaps you can add some illustrations to enhance your report. When you have finished it, remember to read over it to check for any mistakes, spelling errors or make any necessary improvements. We would love to read your finished reports, if you would like to send your report to us, please ask an adult to send a copy to year3@bostonstmarys.co.uk

We would love to add some examples to our class twitter page, perhaps your report could be chosen next.
