

English Task 6th January

Today we have talked about the different parts of the story we have learned about so far in George's Marvellous medicine. I would like you to put these pictures in order and write about them. Using description talk about what the characters look like and how they might feel at this part of the story.

