

Tuesday 2nd March

L.O. To plan my dinosaur story;

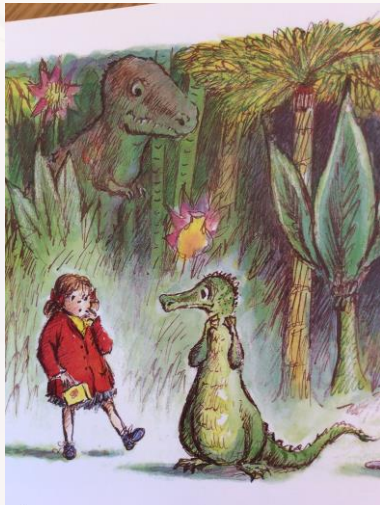

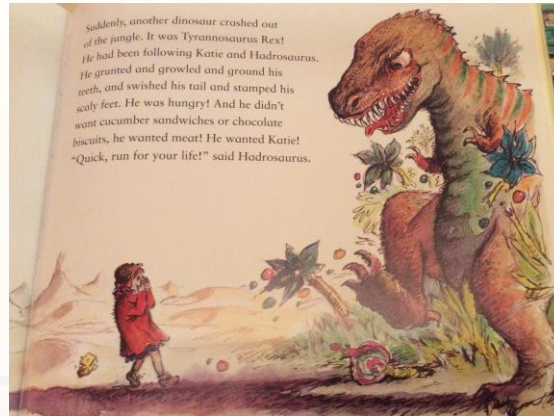

I can talk about what might happen if I took Hadrosaurus home;

I can draw some pictures to describe what might happen;

I can add some key words and sentences to describe each picture;

Let's start with a time adverbial warm-up...

What can you remember about the story?

museum

Katie

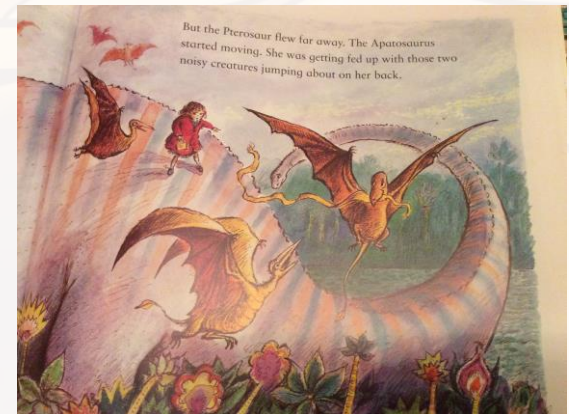

skeletons

Tee-rax

no admittance

jungle

Had-row-sor-us

Ah-pat-oh-sor-us

What would happen if you took the Had-row-sor-us home?

Had-row-sor-us

upset

cross glad worried excited because

How would your mum or dad feel?

My dad was...

My mum was...

What would your family say?

She said...

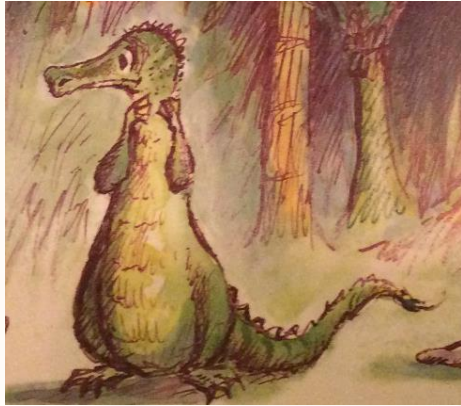

He said...

Task: Draw a picture in the first box to show what would happen if the Hadrosaurus came home to your house. Add some sentences.

Can you use a time adverbial and an adjective in your sentences?

The form consists of three large rectangular boxes arranged horizontally. The first two boxes are empty. The third box has a blue border and small circles at its corners, suggesting it might be a separate sheet or a specific section. Each box contains four horizontal lines for writing.

What would happen if you took the Had-row-sor-us home?

Had-row-sor-us

Add key words...

Would the dinosaur be good or naughty?

The dinosaur was...

What did they do?

He...

She...

Task: Draw a picture in the next box to show what would happen if the Hadrosaurus was allowed to stay at your house. Add some sentences.

Can you use a time adverbial and an adjective in your sentences?

The form consists of three large rectangular boxes arranged horizontally. Each box is outlined in blue. The first two boxes are simple rectangles. The third box on the right has small white circles at its four corners, indicating it might be a separate sheet or a specific feature. Below each box are four horizontal lines for writing.

What would happen if you took the Had-row-sor-us home?

Had-row-sor-us

upset

miserable glad pleased

because

Did the dinosaur stay?

The dinosaur...

How did you feel?

I was...

Task: Draw a picture in the last box to show what would happen if the Hadrosaurus was allowed to stay at your house. Add some sentences.

Can you use a time adverbial and an adjective in your sentences?

The worksheet consists of three large rectangular boxes arranged horizontally. The first two boxes are empty. The third box, on the right, has a dotted blue border and contains four horizontal lines for writing. The entire worksheet is set against a background of a stylized landscape with mountains and a sun.

Tuesday 2nd March

L.O. To plan my dinosaur story;

I can talk about what might happen if I took Hadrosaurus home;

I can draw some pictures to describe what might happen;

I can add some key words and sentences to describe each picture;

Have you been successful?

Yes

Almost

I need more help